Man Killed in Fatal Crash

(February 28, 2024) Phoenix Detectives are investigating circumstances that led to the fatal collision involving a man and two cars in east Phoenix Tuesday night.

Phoenix Police officers responded to a serious collision involving a pedestrian on Tuesday, February 27, 2024, just before 10:00 p.m. When officers got to the area of 32nd Street and Windsor Avenue they found an unknown male suffering from critical injuries. Phoenix Fire personnel responded and pronounced the man deceased on scene.

Detectives learned the victim was in the roadway when a car driving south on 32nd Street hit him. Shortly after this first collision, a second car also driving south on 32nd Street struck the victim. Both drivers stayed on scene and provided detectives with statements and showed no signs of impairment. Further details of what led to this incident and why the victim was in the roadway are still under investigation.
