(May 22, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives processed a 64-year-old man for DUI after hitting a pedestrian in south Phoenix. The adult male pedestrian was pronounced deceased on scene.

Just after 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday May 21, 2024, Phoenix Police officers were called to a pedestrian involved collision near 16th Street and Elwood Street. Officers and fire personnel responded to the area and found an adult male suffering from critical injuries. Emergency medical treatment was provided; however, the man did not survive his injuries and died on scene.

Detectives responded and took over the investigation. Initial information was learned that the victim was walking in the roadway when a truck driving south on 16th Street hit him. The driver of the truck, Steven Muniz, stayed on scene and was processed for driving under the influence and issued a criminal citation. Further details of this collision are under investigation.
