Fatal Crash in South Phoenix Investigated

(March 22, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives investigated a fatal collision involving an adult female pedestrian and a passenger car early Friday morning in South Phoenix.

In the early morning hours of Friday March 22, 2024, Phoenix Police officers were called to a collision near 36th Avenue and Baseline Road. Officers and Fire personnel responded to the scene and found 21-year-old, Jaylynn James suffering from critical injuries. Emergency medical treatment was provided; however, James was not able to survive her injuries. The adult male driver of the involved car was interviewed and showed no signs of impairment.

Detectives responded to the scene and took over the investigation. Initial information was learned that James was attempting to walk across Baseline Road outside all marked crosswalks when she was hit by a car driving west. Further details on what led to this fatal crash are still under investigation.
