North Phoenix Crash Turns Fatal

(December 21, 2024) Detectives are investigating a fatal crash that happened in north Phoenix involving a pedestrian and two vehicles.

Just after 7:00 p.m., on December 21, 2024, officers responded to a collision involving an adult male identified as 38-year-old Ricardo Arambula and two vehicles both driven by adult males. When officers got to the area of 20200 North 7th Street, they found Arambula suffering from critical injuries. Phoenix Fire personnel responded to the scene and pronounced Arambula on scene.

Detectives responded to the scene and took over the investigation. Investigators learned Arambula was in the roadway when he was struck by a truck driving south. The collision pushed Arambula to the ground at which time he was hit by a car also driving south on 7th Street. The driver of the truck showed signs of impairment whereas the driver of the car did not. No arrests have been made at this time, charges are pending further review and lab analysis.
