Man Dies in Fatal Motorcycle Crash

(November 21, 2024) Officers responded to a collision involving a motorcycle and a passenger car that resulted in the death of the adult male bike rider in south Phoenix.

On November 20, 2024, at about 5:30 a.m., patrol officers were called to a collision scene involving a motorcycle rider and a sedan. As officers and fire crew arrived on scene, they found an adult male victim wearing a helmet and suffering from critical injuries. The man, later identified as 34-year-old Blair Simmons, was taken to a local hospital where he died as a result of his injuries.

Detectives responded to the scene and learned Simmons was driving south on 32nd Street when he collided with a passenger car that was making a left turn onto 32nd Street to go south. The driver of the sedan remained on scene. He spoke with detectives and showed no signs of intoxication.

Further information concerning this fatal collision is still under investigation.
