Fatal Hit and Run Collision Investigation

(October 9, 2024) Detectives took over the investigation of a fatal pedestrian involved collision that occurred Tuesday night.

Approximately 8:15 p.m., on October 8, 2024, patrol officers were called to a collision between a car and an adult female pedestrian. Initial calls described a woman running in the roadway and called in as a possible suicide attempt. When officers got to the collision site, they found an adult female who appeared to be hit and was deceased on scene.

Preliminary information suggests, an adult female was crossing midblock when she was struck by an unknown passenger car, which was northbound on North 43rd Avenue. The vehicle and driver fled the scene immediately after the collision.

Two other vehicles also struck the victim after the initial driver, both stayed on scene and cooperated with the investigation.

Anyone with information is asked to call Phoenix Police or call into Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS or 480-TESTIGO with any tips.

The investigation is on-going. Additional details related to this incident remain part of the ongoing investigation
