Officer Involved Shooting

(June 2, 2024) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating an officer involved shooting that occurred on Sunday afternoon near 13th Street and Palm Lane.

On June 2, 2024, at approximately 1:53 p.m., a two-man patrol unit was called to a subject with a gun call near 13th Street and Palm Lane. While enroute, officers received additional information that a man was armed with a gun and attempting to rob them of their motorcycle. When officers arrived, they found a man on a motorcycle stopped in an alley way. Officers stopped pulled into the alley. As they started to get out of their patrol vehicle the man raised the handgun towards officers and that was when the officer involved shooting occurred.

After the shooting, the suspect dropped the gun and officers moved up to provide medical aid. The fire department responded and transported the man to the hospital where he later died from his injuries. The initial victims of the robbery remained on scene and were unharmed. There were no injuries to officers or any other community member.

Detectives responded to investigate the shooting. The investigation is expected to continue until the evening.
