

You can prepay at single-space credit card meters and pay stations for the time you need even if you arrive before the start of enforcement – you will not be charged until the meter begins operation at 8 am. Prepayment begins at 7:00 am at all credit card meters including pay stations. This feature does not apply to coin-only operated meters.