

Omar Gonzales

Omar Gonzales serves as the Manager of State and Local Government Affairs at Nikola Corporation where he leads, shapes, and directs engagement with elected officials, regulators, and other stakeholders to further the company's policy, political, and legislative priorities. Before joining Nikola, Gonzales served as the CA Deputy Policy Director for Mike Bloomberg's 2020 presidential campaign. In this role he helped develop a national policy agenda and advised campaign leadership and senior surrogates on a portfolio of public policy issues. Prior to the campaign, Gonzales worked on the Government Partnerships team at Bird Rides and in the Office of Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti. He is an alum of the Coro Fellowship in Public Affairs and served as a White House intern during the Obama Administration, where he focused on intergovernmental affairs. Gonzales received his Bachelors of Science from USC's Marshall School of Business.
