

Volunteer Phoenix Newsletter

September 2019

Hello Volunteer Community! This month we are highlighting two special opportunities with the city Youth and Education Office and Library Department. As always thank you for volunteering and creating a positive impact in your communities.

City of Phoenix Youth and Education: Tutors Needed

Read on Phoenix/AARP Experience Corps Phoenix - The City of Phoenix, in partnership with the AARP Foundation is recruiting volunteers 50 years and above to support a tutoring program designed to improve reading fluency skills for Phoenix elementary school students. Volunteer Literacy Tutors meet weekly with their assigned students within nine partnering Phoenix school districts. If you enjoy working and inspiring our youth - this opportunity is for you!

For more information, please contact Yvonne Pastor at (602) 256-4388 or yvonne.pastor@phoenix.gov or visit our website at:

City of Phoenix Library Department: Computer Aide

Phoenix Public Library is seeking a Computer Aide to assist community members using Library computers, printers, copiers, scanners and fax machines. Computer Aides should have a background and interest in working with computers, both hardware and software. They will also assist the public in signing on to public computers as well as accessing Wi-Fi on their personal computers, tablets and other electronic devices.

For more information contact Alex Cybulski at alex.cybulski@phoenix.gov

Census Volunteer: Opportunity

The City of Phoenix Census education and outreach campaign aimed at reaching over 1.6 million individuals who reside in Phoenix. To support our resources, the City of Phoenix is looking for volunteers to assist with outreach. Event outreach will garner volunteers the opportunity to talk with the public on the importance and impact of the census. Individuals will have a tablet resource to help answer questions and guide the public to the regional census website. When the time comes, March 2020, volunteers will be able to assist the public with navigating to the census link to complete their census form. Volunteers will undergo a training to prepare them with an overview of census operations, timeline and reporting process. If interested in this volunteer opportunity, please contact Michelle Litwin at michelle.litwin@phoenix.gov or by phone at 602.495.0313
