S'edav Va'aki Museum

School Outreach Information

The museum offers an outreach program that provides a volunteer or staff person that comes to your site to provide a short program and/or craft activity. The programs focus on the Ancestral Sonoran Desert People, petroglyphs, pottery, and desert plants and animals. Teachers and chaperones are needed to assist with the programs and craft activities. Outreach requests must be made at least 4 weeks in advance.

Program Cost

Outreach $75.00*

*An additional fee will be required for multiple programs exceeding one hour. If your school is more than 20 miles from the S'edav Va'aki Museum or in a location outside of the City Phoenix boundaries, a travel charge will be added.

Programs:

- The First Farmers of The Desert (for K – 6th grade)
- Petroglyphs (for K–6th grade)
- Prehistoric Pottery of the Southwest (for 2nd – 4th grade)
- Lab: Keeping Out the Cold (for 4th – 6th grade)
- Lab: Urban Heat Island (for 4th – 6th grade)

Arts and Crafts:

- STEAM-based lab activities are $2.00/participant
- Crafts include: plaster petroglyphs, sandpaper pictographs, pony bead Indian corn, prehistoric pottery, paper shell jewelry, yucca and agave cordage, and embellished desert tortoise

Scheduling Information:

- Payment for the outreach must be made in advance of the scheduled program. We accept checks (payable to the City of Phoenix), cash, credit cards (in person only) and purchase orders. Purchase Orders must be either faxed or mailed to the museum. If payment is not received in advance, we reserve the right to cancel the program.
- Please notify us immediately to cancel or reschedule the outreach program.
- Remember to confirm your outreach program 1 week prior to the scheduled program.
- You will be notified by a staff person if your outreach has been approved.

Booking Information:

To book a S'edav Va'aki Museum outreach program, please download the attached request form and e-mail it to svmeducation@phoenix.gov or mail to the museum. Please note that this is a request only. All outreaches must be approved. A staff person will contact you regarding your request and provide you more detailed information about the outreach programs.
