Homicide Investigation

On May 17, 2021, at about 7:21 p.m., Phoenix Police officers responded to a check welfare call in the area of 4800 North 19th Avenue regarding two children crying on the porch of an apartment. When they arrived, they located two unsupervised toddlers. Officers entered the apartment and located a deceased adult female with obvious signs of trauma. In addition to the two children from the porch, an infant was found in the apartment. It has been determined that the female is the mother of the children. The three children were transported to a hospital and evaluated by medical personnel. They have been released and are in good condition. Detectives are working to determine what led up to the homicide. There is no suspect information available at this time. This is an ongoing investigation.
