FATAL TRAFFIC COLLISION INVESTIGATION

On August 7, 2021 at about 8:20 p.m., Phoenix Police officers responded to the intersection of 35th Avenue and Thomas Road for a collision involving a pedestrian and a SUV.

Officers arrived and located the pedestrian with life-threatening injuries. Phoenix Fire personnel responded and transported the man to a nearby hospital where he was pronounced deceased. The driver of the SUV remained on scene and cooperated with detectives.

Witnesses reported seeing the pedestrian running north against the traffic signal when he was struck. Impairment is not believed to be a factor as it relates to the driver of the vehicle. This is an ongoing investigation.
