Homicide investigation

On September 8, 2021, just before 6:00 p.m., Phoenix Police responded to an unknown trouble call in the area of 13th Street and Mountain View Road. They contacted an adult male outside his residence who was pleading for help. Officers located the two victims inside the residence, deceased in a bed. Officers located the adult female inside a bedroom, suffering from what are believed to be multiple self-inflicted stab wounds. The adult female was transported to a local hospital and is currently expected to survive.

The adult male was detained on scene, cooperated with detectives, and later released.

The investigation on scene is still ongoing. The medical examiner will assist in determining the cause and manner of death.
