A Man Found Dead in West Phoenix

(December 17, 2022): Detectives are investigating a shooting that resulted in a homicide during a private vehicle sale.

Phoenix Police officers were dispatched to an injured person call in the area of 4500 West Coronado Road just before 9:15 p.m. When officers arrived, they found the victim, 27-year-old David Navidad-Parra, on the ground with a gunshot wound. The fire department responded and pronounced Navidad-Parra deceased.

Officers learned there was another call for service received in the area of a man missing while providing a test drive of a private vehicle to an adult male suspect. Officers confirmed the reported missing person was Navidad-Parra.

Detectives responded to investigate what lead up to the shooting and process the crime scene. Detectives later received additional information the Glendale Police Department responded to a vehicle fire near 91st Avenue and Rose Lane early Saturday morning. Preliminary information suggests the found vehicle was involved in the homicide investigation.

There have been no arrests made and we ask anyone with information to contact the Phoenix Police Department or Silent Witness if they wish to remain anonymous.
