Aggravated Assault Investigation

On November 3rd, at about 2:00 p.m., officers from our Gang Enforcement Unit and Neighborhood Enforcement Team responded to a call for service about a male in a vehicle waving a gun around. They attempted to stop the vehicle and contact the occupants near 25th Avenue and Glenrosa. As an officer in an unmarked car pulled up towards the stopped car, a 17-year-old male in the passenger seat shot through the windshield, striking the windshield of the unmarked car, on the driver side, near head level. The officer was uninjured. A 16-year-old was also arrested for possession of a firearm as well as aggravated assault on a Police Officer. Both juveniles were booked into the Juvenile Detention Center. Due to the fact that they are not adults, their names will not be released.
