Homicide Investigation

Phoenix Police have made an arrest in a homicide that left an adult male dead last night near 12th Street and Northern Avenue.

Police were called to a parking lot in the area of 12th Street and Northern just before midnight about a man who had been struck by a vehicle. Officers learned 62-year-old Paul Scott was involved in an altercation with the victim about an hour before striking and running him over with his car. The victim did not survive his injuries. Scott remained nearby, and asked someone to call police.

Scott was booked into jail for one count of First-Degree Murder.

Police are interested in speaking to anyone who may have witnessed any interaction between the suspect and victim. If you have information, please call the Phoenix Police Department at 602-262-6151, or if you would like to remain anonymous, you can call Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS.
