Homicide in west Phoenix

(July 4, 2023): Detectives investigated a shooting that occurred in a west Phoenix neighborhood. A victim was taken by witnesses to a local hospital where he died from his injuries.

Phoenix Police officers were dispatched to a call of a shooting near 60th Lane and Virginia Avenue. When they arrived the located casings in the area, but no victims were found. Later, a call came in of a walk-in gunshot wound victim at a local hospital. The victim, 20-year-old Malik Hillman, received medical treatment at the hospital but later died from his injuries.

Detectives responded to process the scene and interview witnesses. During the investigation, detectives learned there was an exchange of gunfire involving suspects in two different vehicles. Both vehicles drove off after the shooting. Currently, no suspects are in custody.

Detectives continue to actively investigate the shooting and are asking anyone with information to contact the Phoenix Police Department or Silent Witness if they wish to remain anonymous.
