Motorcycle Fatality in South Phoenix

(November 26, 2023): Phoenix Police investigating a fatal collision that occurred around 7:30 p.m. yesterday evening that left one man dead.

Officers responded to a serious vehicle collision near 7th Street and Apollo Road Saturday evening. When officers arrived, they found a 4-door vehicle and a motorcycle involved in the collision. Officers found the motorcyclist, later identified as 28-year-old Tristian Swain, on the roadway with obvious signs of trauma. A woman, who was a passenger on the motorcycle, was also found on the roadway with injuries.

The fire department responded to treat the motorcyclists and transported them to the hospital. Swain later died from his injuries. The woman remains in stable condition as she continues to receive treatment at the hospital.

The driver and passenger of the 4-door vehicle were not injured and the driver did not display any signs of impairment.

Preliminary information suggests the 4-door vehicle made a left hand turn onto Apollo Road when it collided with the motorcycle that head heading northbound on 7th Street. The investigation remains active as detectives continue to process the evidence.
