Early Evening Collision Leaves Man Dead

(November 19, 2023) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating a north valley collision which left a motorcycle rider dead.

On November 18, 2023, around 5:30 p.m., officers responded to the area of Cave Creek Road and Nisbet Road regarding a collision involving a motorcycle. When officers arrived, they located the adult male motorcycle rider, identified as 19-year-old Matthew Allen-Winchester, with serious injuries. Allen-Winchester was transported to a local hospital but he did not survive his injuries and was pronounced deceased. The other vehicle involved remained on scene after the collision.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information suggests that Allen-Winchester was southbound on Cave Creek Road when he collided with a vehicle that was traveling westbound across Cave Creek Road from one private drive to another. All other details about what led up to the collision will be determined through the accident reconstruction process.
