Victim: Henry Eugene Johnson, 44-year-old, deceased

Fatal Collision Involving Vehicle and Pedestrian

(November 9, 2022) Phoenix police detectives responded to 11th Avenue and Bell Road to investigate a collision that left one person dead.

Last night at about 6:00 p.m. on November 8, 2022, Phoenix police responded to a call of a collision involving a vehicle and pedestrian near 11th Avenue and Bell Road. Officers found an adult male suffering serious injury on the ground. The man was later identified as Henry Eugene Johnson. Johnson was transported to the hospital in critical condition where he later died.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information indicates the pedestrian attempted to walk across Bell Road when a vehicle going west on Bell Road struck him. There were no signs of impairment by the adult female driver.

Further details about the crash are still under investigation.
