Detectives Investigate a Fatal Collision with a Pedestrian

Phoenix police detectives responded to the area of 3200 West Indian School Road to investigate a fatal traffic collision that left a 30-year-old pedestrian dead on scene.

Just before midnight on November 3, 2022, Phoenix police responded to a call of a vehicle collision involving a pedestrian walking midblock on Indian School Road. The adult female driver involved was traveling eastbound when the collision occurred. She then drove to her place of employment and called 911 to notify police.

The female victim was later pronounced deceased on scene by the Phoenix Fire Department. The driver of the passenger car was evaluated for impairment; however, no indications were seen.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation.
