Fatal Collision

Phoenix police are investigating a collision that has left a 19-year-old male dead.

On August 27th, just before 8 p.m., Phoenix police were called to the area of Central Avenue and Bell Road about a collision between a motorcycle and a truck. When officers got to the scene, they located the motorcyclist, later identified as Leonardo Rios-Aguilar, and found that he had died from his injuries. The operator of the truck was taken to a local hospital with serious, but non-life-threatening injuries.

At this time, this remains an active investigation as detectives learn what led up to the collision.
