One Dead, Three Others Injured in Phoenix Shooting

(December 10, 2022) Phoenix Police detectives are investigating what led up to a Friday night shooting that left one man dead and three other adults injured near 2400 Street and Southern Avenue.

Phoenix Officers responded to multiple calls of a shooting at about 7:00 p.m. Friday, December 9, 2022. Officers made contact with 19-year-old Ty'Lee Marshall who was suffering from gunshot wound. The Phoenix Fire Department took him to a local hospital where he did not survive from his injuries.

While investigating, officers located evidence that led them to a nearby home where a second adult male victim was found and was provide medical assistance. He was also taken to a local hospital with non-life-threatening injuries. A third adult male victim had already left the scene before officers arrived. Someone took him to the hospital, where he is suffering from life-threatening injuries.

The fourth victim, an adult female, had called 911 during the investigation asking for medical help from a gunshot wound. Officers and Phoenix Fire personnel went to her address and were able to provide care. She was taken to a local hospital with non-life-threatening injuries

Information regarding the events that led to the shooting are still on-going as detectives work to understand what led up to this incident and identify any and all involved suspects. Anyone with information is asked to contact the Phoenix Police Department, or Silent Witness (480-WITNESS or 480-TESTIGO for Spanish Speakers).
