Serious Injury Collision

(December 25, 2022) Phoenix police detectives responded to 31st Avenue and Belleview Street to investigate a serious injury collision involving a vehicle and motorcycle. The motorcycle rider suffered critical injuries.

Today at about 4:40 p.m. on December 25, 2022 Phoenix police responded to a call of a vehicle and motorcycle collision near 31st Avenue and Belleview Street. The motorcycle rider was transported to the hospital with critical injuries. There were no other reports of injury.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Preliminary information indicates the motorcycle was going south on 31st Avenue and struck the front of a vehicle going north on 31st Avenue who attempted to make a left turn onto Belleview Street. Impairment is not believed to be a factor with the driver of the vehicle. Speed may have been a factor with the motorcycle rider.

Further details about the crash remain under investigation.
