Shooting Injures Juvenile

Phoenix Police responded to a shooting that occurred near 28th Drive and Adams Street. During the gunfire, one juvenile was struck and transported to the hospital. Officers arrested the suspect shortly after the shooting.

Monday afternoon just after 2:30 p.m., on September 19, 2022, Phoenix police were called to the area of 28th Drive and Adams Street for a shooting. Officers arrived and found one juvenile suffering from a graze wound. The juvenile was taken to the hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.

Officers learned the suspect, identified as Mark Strickland, fired a gun at the vehicle that was occupied by an adult male and the juvenile. The adult male was not injured. Information indicates that the adult male in the car and Strickland have an on-going dispute.

After the shooting, Strickland left before police arrived. Officers searched the area and spoke to potential witnesses on scene. Strickland was found at a different location and arrested.

Detectives responded to take over the investigation. Strickland was booked into jail on several charges including aggravated assault. This remains an on-going investigation.
