Officer Involved Shooting on 19th Avenue

Phoenix police detectives are investigating an officer involved shooting that took place near 1900 West Tuckey Lane, just south of Glendale Avenue resulting in the death of an adult male.

On September 24, 2022, at approximately 6:45 p.m. two Phoenix patrol units were driving through the intersection of 19th Avenue and Tuckey Lane when their cars were struck by unknown items causing damage. The officers drove from the area and pulled over to talk with each other about what had happened. They then drove back toward Tuckey Lane to investigate further.

As one of the units pull into the intersection of 19th Avenue and Tuckey Lane, he saw a man throwing rocks towards his patrol car. The officers attempted to contact the man, who continued to throw rocks at them. Commands were given for the man to stop. He did not, that's when the officer involved shooting occurred striking the man.

The officers provided medical aid to the man until the Phoenix Fire Department arrived. He was transported to a local hospital where he did not survive.

There were no injuries to community members during this incident.

The investigation is continuing.
